Frequently Asked Questions

The School of Theatre at Florida State University is consistently recognized as one of the finest theatre programs in the nation. The Summer Music Theatre Intensive is a summer workshop for high school students entering their junior or senior year who are pursuing music theatre at the collegiate level. The Intensive takes place over a three-week period culminating in a final cabaret that is open to the public.

Eligibility

The Summer Music Theatre Intensive is open to high school students entering their junior or senior year.

Application and Acceptance

Acceptance to the Summer Music Theatre Intensive is conducted through a pre-screen process. Applicants can submit a pre-screen beginning November 15, 2018 at <https://app.getacceptd.com/fsutheatre>. Applications to the Summer Music Theatre Intensive consist of a headshot, theatrical resume, a video of two contrasting songs (16 bar cuts, an uptempo and a ballad), a short clip of a dance combination (jazz or ballet), a video of a contemporary monologue, and a statement of educational and professional goals. All application and audition materials must be received by March 1, 2019. Applicants will be notified on a rolling basis regarding the decision of their application.

Costs

The cost of the Music Theatre Intensive three-week program is $4,000, which includes tuition, fees, housing, meals, and activities. The cost does not include your transportation to and from Tallahassee.

Housing and Meals

All Music Theatre Intensive students will be housed on campus in dormitories. Meals will be provided through the university's dining services.

Curriculum

The School of Theatre's Music Theatre Intensive program welcomes students of varying training and skill levels, however, it is not a typical summer camp. MTI is an intense program designed for high school students that intend to pursue a degree or career in music theatre.

Attire

Clothing should be appropriate to the assigned activity and must be free of inappropriate slogans or graphics.

Faculty

The faculty for the Summer Music Theatre Intensive will include the Program Heads for the Music Theatre and Acting programs, distinguished faculty from the School of Theatre, and accomplished alumni.
